

Art

Use natural objects as starting points for observational drawing and sculpture.

Study the work of Andy Goldsworthy and Chris Drury.

DT

Selecting from a range of tools and equipment to perform cutting tasks

English

Read texts to develop phonic knowledge and comprehension. Develop punctuation and writing styles of stories, instructions, recounts and poetry. Become more independent spellers.

Geography

To study Human and Physical features of the local area. To use basic geographical vocabulary

History

History will be a focus in the second half term.

Computing

Select and use appropriate painting tools to create and change images on the computer. Importing images to make a digital book

Special Activities

September - Walk to Bramingham Woods.

October – Harvest Festivals
Nocturnal animal workshop

Dark

What happens when the sun goes down?

RE

Celebrating special times associated with religious festivals

Values

The values for:
September – Courage
October – Quality
These will be included throughout the curriculum.

Science

Comparing habitats and investigating food chains within them, knowing the elements in the food chain.

Maths

Read, write and order numbers to 100 and beyond.
Place value of numbers to 100 and number bonds to 20
Writing numbers and investigating and reasoning.

PSHE

Being me in my world.
Discussing new beginnings.
Keeping safe and caring about others.

PE

Send and receive a variety of objects, changing their action for accuracy and distance.
Develop control of a ball, changing speed and direction.

Music

Develop understanding of pulse and rhythm. Use voices expressively to speak chants / sing songs. Explore different types of percussion instruments. Take part in a class composition and follow a graphic